

PRESS RELEASE

Pima Federal Credit Union Named Arizona's #1 Credit Union by Forbes.

Tucson, Arizona – July 6, 2026 – Pima Federal Credit Union (Pima Federal) has been recognized by Forbes as one of America's Best-In-State Credit Unions for 2026, earning the distinction of being ranked the #1 Credit Union in Arizona.

Presented by Forbes in partnership with Statista, the America's Best-In-State Credit Unions ranking recognizes outstanding community-based financial institutions across the country. The rankings are based on an independent survey of thousands of U.S. consumers and publicly available reviews, evaluating credit unions on trust, member service, financial advice, digital services, and overall member satisfaction.

For 75 years, Pima Federal has remained committed to helping individuals, families and businesses build stronger financial futures. This recognition reflects the trust members place in Pima Federal every day and the dedication of employees who strive to make every interaction meaningful.

"Being recognized by Forbes as Arizona's #1 credit union is an incredible honor because it comes directly from the experiences and feedback of our members," said Eric Renaud, President and CEO of Pima Federal. "Our mission has always been to improve the lives of our members and strengthen the communities we serve. Every day, our team comes to work focused on helping people buy their first home, save for the future, navigate life's challenges, and achieve their financial goals. We are grateful for the trust our members place in us and remain committed to delivering the personalized service, financial guidance, and innovative solutions that have defined Pima Federal for 75 years."

As Pima Federal celebrates its 75th anniversary in 2026, this recognition underscores the credit union's continued commitment to putting members first while investing in the communities throughout Arizona and beyond.
